Community Generates Over $1.8 Million in 2020 Challenge Match

The Wayne County Foundation announced today detailed results of its 2020 Challenge Match.

Forty-nine local organizations collectively raised $1.57 million from generous donors in a nine-day period this November. This amount, plus the Foundation match, represents over $1.83 million in total contributed benefit to the community.

The Challenge Match was an opportunity for participating organizations to share up to $265,000 from the Foundation, based on qualifying gifts they received from the community in a designated match period. 2020 marked the ninth time the program has been offered.

“Our community is incredibly generous,” said Rebecca Gilliam, executive director of the Foundation. “This was the largest Challenge Match to date in terms of the number of dollars raised. Clearly, this remains an incredibly effective tool to help local not-for-profit organizations promote themselves in the community and raise critical operating dollars.”

“We especially want to thank our Match Partners,” Gilliam said. “The Match Partners included the Doxpop Charitable Giving Fund, First Bank Community Fund, Fund for Tomorrow, Second Chance Fund, and the Wayne Bank and Trust Community Fund. Their contributions really led the way and enabled more organizations to participate.”

The participating organizations and the amounts they received from the community and the Foundation are as follows:

“Many people have told us how much they appreciate the Foundation’s role in promoting this kind of giving,” Gilliam said. “But we’re the ones who need to be saying thanks. The participating organizations, our Match Partners, the media outlets that helped promote the program, and especially all of the donors who gave so generously are the ones who make the Challenge Match a success. They are the ones who make it all possible.”
